

IT'S TIME TO FIGHT THE NAZIS

The BNP have won their fifth council seat, racist attacks are soaring and the government and media are whipping up racist hysteria against asylum seekers. We can stop the Nazis in the May elections—if we fight.

The BNP Nazis are capitalising on racist hysteria against Muslims and asylum seekers—but we can stop them if we unite and fight.

Every warmonger needs a scapegoat. That's why the build-up to the war on Iraq has been marked by a disgusting torrent of racist hysteria against Muslims and asylum seekers.

Tabloids run scare stories about "scrounging" refugees, while government ministers blame Muslims for "failing to integrate".

This climate of officially sanctioned racism plays straight into the hands of the BNP and other Nazi organisations. It also leads directly to racist attacks and murders.

The BNP is exploiting the warmongers' racism to make its Nazi agenda appear "respectable".

The National Front is also busy whipping up race hatred against Muslims, encouraging people to attack mosques and Muslim community centres.

When the Nazis get confident, racist attacks and murders swiftly follow. Israr Hussain, an Oldham taxi driver, had his throat slashed in a horrific racist murder on 28 December.

Racist attacks in Greater Manchester have soared by 75 percent this year, according to police figures. Most of this rise has been in Oldham, where the BNP Nazis have been organising.

There have been 13 incidents of white gangs attacking blacks and Asians in south east London recently—another area where the BNP has been active.

Peiman Bahmani, an Iranian refugee living in Sunderland, was murdered in broad daylight by a racist gang last August.

There will be more racist attacks if we don't stand up to the BNP now. The majority of people in this country are anti-racist. If we unite together, we can stop the Nazis.

You can help by getting involved in anti-Nazi activities in your area. You can deliver leaflets exposing what the BNP really stands for, run anti-Nazi street stalls, and come along to protests and demonstrations against the BNP.

Opposing the war also means opposing the racism that war breeds—and standing up to the Nazis is a vital part of that struggle.

You can help stop the BNP by joining the Anti Nazi League

The Anti Nazi League is a broad-based mass organisation dedicated to halting the growth of the BNP and other Nazi organisations. Anyone who wants to stop the Nazis can join. We have a proud record of fighting racism and fascism through mass protests, demonstrations and May local elections.

The BNP have five councillors and plan to stand 200 candidates in the May local elections.

Last September we organised the immensely successful "Love Music Hate Racism" carnival in Manchester, which brought together 35,000 people against the Nazi BNP in a militant and positive celebration of our multiracial society.

ANL members in Burnley have been actively campaigning against the three Nazi councillors who coned their way into the town hall last May. We have organised anti-BNP demonstrations, held regular street stalls and picketed BNP rallies. We are planning a carnival in Burnley this April.

Join our "Don't Vote Nazi" campaign for the local elections. We will leaflet every house in every ward where the Nazis are standing, exposing the BNP as the Hitler-loving Nazi thugs they really are.

All of this can only be done by bringing ordinary people together in action on a mass scale. The Anti Nazi League is a voluntary organisation, funded entirely by members and trade union affiliates. If you want to help stop the Nazis, fill out the form below and join us today.
